Mitchell officers proposed

A near riot involving 100 to 150 Gypsies in the Mitchell area Sunday has increased concern among residents and businessmen, who are considering such anti-crime steps as seeking formation of a police unit supervised by the sheriff.

Several businessmen along Chain of Rocks Road have indicated they may be forced to close their businesses unless more is done to curb crime.

Burglaries and thefts are numerous and armed robberies have occurred, they noted. The proposed unit would be similar to one in State Park Place and one being formed in Namecki Township along the northern edge of Granite City.

Gene Dodson, who operates several businesses along West Highway, Traffic and Transportation Chairman Joseph Hassler and Tri-City Regional Port District Manager Carl Rant described the tough crime request to the Interstate Commerce Commission as of prime interest in encouraging Pontoon Beach and Mitchell area industrial development.

The request involves extending the zone to 15 miles on all sides of the St. Louis-East St. Louis city limits. Net effect would be to permit economical deliveries rather than forcing cargo transfers and added charges. Granite City, Madison and Venice already are in the zone.

The boundaries were described as crucial in the profitable operation of manufacturing facilities. Absence of such a zone has hampered the Belle-Valley industrial development in Belleville, it was noted.

Chamber directors described the scheduled sanitary sewer construction program here as vital to the future of the Quad-City area. It was asserted that proceeding with the sewers is necessary if a proposed $150 million Interstate 270-Highway Three commercial-industrial project is to be carried out.

It was noted that the Sewers-Drainage Committee and Real Estate Committees are aiding in contacting property owners who have not yet signed easements. Volunteers are being sought from the Chamber of Commerce, Granite City Rotary Prayer Breakfast Group and the general public to aid in explaining the merits of the sewer project, and to make the councils necessary to obtain an adequate number of easement signatures.

On and off the record

When a fellow really needs a friend

Parents and teachers living in the area of Parkway School made Monday livable for hundreds of grade school pupils by opening their homes—and bathrooms—to the youngsters. A child apparently had placed a ball in a sewer line, blocking use of any restrooms in the school until repairs could be made later in the day. Teachers meanwhile escorted class groups to the residences.

On a motion by Alderman Emerald Daves, chairman of the council's City Buildings committee, the council authorized City Clerk Robert Stevens to call for construction bids to be opened at Stevens office at 4:30 p.m. May 5.

Specifications will call for construction of a single-story, brick, cottage-type quarters for 12 firemen.

The station will be built on a site at Richmond Avenue and Johnson Road which was purchased at a cost of $12,000 in 1973. Construction was blocked at that time by a group of neighborhood residents who objected to the building at that location.

The controversy continued for more than a year and was resolved in October 1975 when circuit court proceedings filed by the residents to enjoin the city from building the station were dismissed on the motion of the objectors.

More time was involved in proceedings for issuance of a special use permit to authorize the construction on the Richmond-Johnson site. Henry Gabriel, architect who is designing and planning the new station, attended Monday's council session and told the aldermen that he believes under the present schedule construction work on the new station could get under way by late May.

If there are no major problems such as strikes or prolonged bad weather, the building should be ready for use in early winter, probably in late November or early December, he said.

It's a good thing they weren't rabbits

Out of the magician's hat and into the air, three doves flew around the YMCA auditorium Tuesday. Granite City Rotarians scrambled to aid the magician in recapturing the birds.

Glenn L. Tonsor, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn (Lous) Tonsor, 2106 Woodlawn Ave., a student at Granite City High School North, entertained the club with a 30-minute magic show.

There will be no regular meeting next week; the members will participate Thursday in service club's annual Maundy Thursday luncheon at the First United Presbyterian Church of Granite City.

On Tuesday, April 20, Rotarians are to bring their secretaries with them in observance of National Secretaries Week. Miss Twila Edmonds, president of the Tri-Cities Secretarial Association, will be guest speaker.

Freedom train in area this week

Quad-Cityans have through this Sunday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, to view the American Freedom Train at the foot of the Gateway Arch on Wharf Street in St. Louis. Crowds have been relatively light, permitting admittance without the long waiting encountered in some cities.

Ten display cars provide a panorama of the nation's 200 years, ranging from George Washington's hand-written notes on the U.S. Constitution to a lunar landing module.

Topics of the cars are: the beginning, exploration-expansion, growth, origins, innovations, human resources, sports, performing arts, fine arts and conflict and resolution. Charter sponsors of the train are Pepsi-Cola, General Motors, Prudential Insurance and Kraft Foods.

Its two-year journey will end Dec. 30.

Women making political inroads

Among 78 women running statewide and in Cook County, 50 were successful and 10 were on the November general election ballot, the Illinois Women's Political Caucus reports.

Five Women Congressional candidates are among the nominees. They are running in the 6th, 7th, 14th, 19th and 21st districts.

In state senatorial races, six of the 12 running were nominated. For state representatives, 26 of the 39 women who ran in the primary gained nomination.

Fatality statistics included in Quad-Cityans who are injured fatally in accidents occurring in this area or elsewhere, and persons, regardless of residence, who are fatally injured in accidents occurring within the Quad-City area.

Accident fatalities recorded in the Quad-City area over the past 15 years show that in no instance has there been a period of three consecutive months in which there were no deaths due to traffic accident injuries.

The closest approach to this record was recorded in April and May 1969 when no traffic deaths occurred during that two-month period.

During the past decade, statistics show that there never has been less than five traffic fatalities during the first three-month period of any one of those ten years.

The largest number of traffic deaths for any January-February-March period within the last 10 years was reported in 1971 when 14 persons died in traffic accidents, or as the result of such accidents, during that three-month period. During that period, six persons were killed in January, one in February and seven in March.

history, the Rev. Kettelhut announced.
In addition to original songs and sketches, extensive research by the players turned up a wealth of actual historical material that reflects the rich and delightful tradition of American humor. The production is not a satire, but it does "poke" gentle fun at some of our sacred cows, often in the exact words of famous historical figures, the minister said.

Book review, luncheon May 8

The Evening Guild met
Monday at St. Peter
Evangelical United Church of Christ and viewed a film,

Water at 18th and State streets rose to knee depth and then reached the first-floor level.

Refugees from Venice, Madison and West Grove had to move again, finally settling up tents and moving into vacant railroad cars.

A newspaper account related that on the night of June 8, 200 families left Venice by train for Springfield and other areas, while 2,000 more stood on the depot platform clamoring to be taken to safety.

"Railroads later began running excursion trains into Granite City and many people came to view the flood conditions," Pierce wrote.

"Owners of motor launches and small steamboats shipped passengers at 10th and State for sightseeing tours through the inundated area."

Grocers and vegetable dealers sent out peddlers to sell produce from the flooded rowboats to aid marooned housewives.

When engines halted at the Granite City municipal pumping station, Mayor John Edwards went there to help get the pumps operating again.

A native of Wales, who came here from Indiana in 1901 and was elected mayor on a Labor Party ticket only six weeks earlier, Edwards was carrying a gasoline lantern.

"I ignited gasoline leaking from a fuel tank, and I suffered fatal burns in the resulting explosion, dying nine days later."

By June 24, levees and railroad embankments holding trapped water were being cut. A dike protecting the Merchants Bridge was opened, the railroad tracks being shored up temporarily with rocks.

Those ordered to vacate railroad cars moved to tents set up at a used tire yard where they could return to their homes.

Flood waters extensively damaged the Venice power plant.

The Stamping Works and American Steel were shut down. Street cars were put out of service for a long period, the result of a long period of rain.

The total loss was estimated at the millions of dollars in this community.

Even such a tragedy had its humorous sidelights. Many of them dealt with stories about the size of fish caught during the high water, and some were true.

A long-seven and a half feet-and-heavy-200-pound alligator was among the specimens caught.

Those in flood refuge camps raised national flags to designate different areas, including England, Poland, Hungary and Italy.

Woodsen sidewalks literally moved out from underneath, and sections were used by youngsters as rafts.

Flooding continued to pose a threat to the Quad-City community for years after, although there has been no general inundation since 1903.

Floods of that severity are no longer regarded as possible in the view of the present system of river controls.

While the mighty Mississippi has been the major water menace, rainfall also has caused heavy flooding damage.

Such a downpour occurred on Oct. 17, 1900, damaged sewer lines and curbs newly installed during paving of N. Broadway Avenue.

On July 15, 1900, the Quad-City Press and Herald took pains to report: "Hundreds of homes are not under water in Venice. Two hundred citizens of Venice and Brooklyn did not work on the levee last night. The flood has not weakened the embankment."

"The Tri-Cities are not in danger of being inundated. Neither is Granite City menaced by back water, despite the fact that the St. Louis papers say so."

Flood damage was recorded in 1915, and some local farms in 1920, causing some problems, and flooding of farms in June 1935 resulted in losses estimated at $100,000.

Flooding also was experienced in 1942, and the following year a levee broke at the flooded Highway 66 and closed the Chain of Rocks Bridge from May 22 until July 12.

In 1944, E. G. Schmitt, chairman of the central control body of all war councils in the Quad-Cities, led a successful fight against a serious flood threat. High school students and citizens volunteered to fill sandbags.

Typhoid shots were given in August 1946 as a cloudburst caused $250,000 flood damage. Worst hit were Wilson Park and adjacent streets, Community Heights, Pontoon Beach, Tri-City Park, near West Granite and the northeastern area of Madison.

Commended for board service

The Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night honored their member Carl Macios, who has served 10 years on the board. Tuesday night marked the final meeting for Macios, who decided not to seek re-election in Saturday's school board election.

Board President George Moore Sr. commended Macios for 10 years of devoted service and a good job, "while on the board."

Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis also offered a parting statement, saying, "My thanks for the many long nights spent on school district business—time taken away from your family—and for your extra hard work."

Macios thanked the board and administrators, saying, "I would like to express my deep gratitude and thanks to my fine board and administration."

"I'll probably miss it. I have many friends I hope to keep throughout the years," Macios concluded.

A plant engineer for McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Corp., Macios also has served as a laborer.

Car owners

employees and office workers using meters may all day long.

He said downtown merchants have complained that store employees and office workers park their cars in the streets throughout the day by inserting coins in the meters periodically, knowing that the police will turn the crank and renew a parking period without placing a violation ticket on the car.

At this point, Coleman remarked that "I'm for doing away with all parking meters. We only make an average of 40 cents a day on a meter, and if we can work out a plan by which the merchants will reimburse the city for the loss of meter revenue, I think we can attract more customers to the downtown stores and increase business."

"This would increase our sales tax and give us additional revenue," Coleman added.

Other sources, however, have questioned such a plan on grounds that it would put downtown parking space on a first-come, first-served basis for motorists who then could park all day in the same place, unless other forms of control were provided.

The present city ordinance provides a two-hour parking limit in a meter space regardless of the amount of money the car owner puts in the meter.

A possible plan to eliminate meters has been discussed between the merchants and the special committee.

Which, in addition to Coleman, includes Aldermen Steve Barschick of the Fifth Ward and Alderman Decatur, it was learned.

Gerald Parmley, Sixth-Ward alderman, responded to Coleman's proposal.

"It is heart-rending to hear the chairman of the Finance Committee say, in effect, that we can eliminate income from the parking meter fund, which amounts to about $100,000 a year," he (Coleman) is talking about 40 cents a day for each meter, but he doesn't mention the $1 fines we collect from violators."

Coleman replied that the city income from parking meters "is about $56,000 a year, but the balance from that fund is approximately $83,000 a year."

The meter fund is used to pay salaries of several policemen, including two officers assigned to the downtown area to check meters.

Whitmer told the council that if the meters were eliminated "then those two officers stationed downtown would come out of that area and be assigned to patrol duty somewhere else. There would be no need of them downtown if the meters were not there."

The discussion ended on a vote on Morlen's motion to change the system of turning the meter cranks to deposit coins. The motion carried unanimously.

where waters reached a depth of seven feet in some places. With the highway approach topped by 27 feet of water, the Chain of Rocks Bridge was closed for 17 days during flooding in June and July 1947.

president of the Board of Education. Board member Harold Davis made a motion authorizing Macios to help present diplomas this year at Granite City High School North, where his daughter, Carla, is graduating.

"After serving this district 40 years, I think the least we can do for Carl is allow him to present the diploma to his daughter," Davis commented. The board concurred.

Jack Cochran dies at 46

Chain of Rocks Road, is among those calling for action.

His businesses have been the victims of 15 crimes, mostly burglaries, during the past five years, he said.

"I would like to see more claims are submitted for these businesses, but right now, I would rather wait than build up," Dodson said.

He fears that his insurance policies may be cancelled if he discloses the losses due to thefts. Other businessmen have the same problem, he said.

Dodson formerly owned the Standard service station on West Chain of Rocks Road, which was the victim of two armed robberies. "I finally turned it back to Standard, and some young man is operating it now," Dodson said.

He also operates the Trails-In Campgrounds but has discarded winter storage there. "This winter I was storing eight camping trailers there. Six of them were broken into and stripped. No one will leave a trailer here now," he said.

He also has discontinued a tire bank operated in conjunction with trucking companies.

The trucking firms would leave truck tires and wheels with Dodson and if a truck had a flat tire, Dodson's employees would take a tire and wheel to the scene and quickly change the tire.

Recently, all of the tires and wheels stored there were stolen. "There is no way that business can survive," Dodson added.

He said a vending machine company has stopped supplying machines and other game machines to his businesses because several were broken into and the coin boxes forced open.

Dodson also operates the Union 76 Truck Stop at Chain of Rocks Road and Route Three. He said he would like to keep the truck stop garage open 24 hours a day, but the crime rate convinced him to close the business at night.

Two weeks ago, the office door was broken open and tires, a calculator and cash were stolen, he related.

"Recently I went to the movies, leaving the house for two hours, while Precinct Four includes all of the area west of Weaver and Klein streets to the district's western boundary."

Parking poses problem at school ball field

Madison County Sheriff John Maeras has requested that the Granite City Board of Education attempt to find an answer to an old problem of parking at Granite City High School North parking along Morrison Road, in the no-parking zone, and then walking through the yard to reach the school's baseball field.

Neighbors complained last year about the problem, resulting in the no-parking zones being established and an appeal being made in the Press-Record for spectators not to walk across private property to reach the baseball field.

Maeras noted at the letter to North Principal Gilbert Walsey that the efforts at that time seemed to have a positive effect on the Granite City fans, but noted, "Our officers report that most of the offenders seem to be from out of the area and are not local people are observing the no-parking zone."

The sheriff said parking along Morrison Road creates a traffic hazard, "as the roadway is not of sufficient width to provide two lanes of traffic and a parking lane."

Joseph Fedora, director of athletics for the school district, said, "The problem is not so much one of inadequate parking facilities on the school grounds as it is the distance the parking areas are from the baseball field."

Fedora added, "I don't understand it. We don't have a problem with our soccer games."

Two schools burglarized

Two Granite City public schools were broken into this week, police said. The first burglary occurred at Granite City High School, where a car was stolen.

At 6:25 a.m. Tuesday, officers at Mitchell School, 316 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, discovered a window to room 18a had been broken and the contents of the room stolen.

Frozen ground beef and French-fried potatoes were stolen from two freezers at the school.

At 1:45 a.m. Wednesday, it was discovered a party school, 3200 Maryville Road, had been broken into. A large quantity of frozen meat was stolen from the gymnasium floor.

At 1:45 a.m. Wednesday, it was discovered a party school, 3200 Maryville Road, had been broken into. A large quantity of frozen meat was stolen from the gymnasium floor.

Police, investigating a disturbance call nearby, saw a car with no headlights driving north on Maryville Road. The car was stopped at the intersection of Division Street in Pontoon Beach, a dead-end street.

At the end of the street, the auto struck a tree stump and came to a halt. Three men got out of the car and fled into the woods.

Granite City and Pontoon Beach police were aided by Illinois State Police troopers and Madison County sheriff's deputies in searching for the three, but were unsuccessful.

Found in the abandoned car was a large quantity of frozen meat and fish, an amplifier, a cassette tape player, a crowbar, a pair of pliers and a car ignition switch.

Police found the items in the car were taken during the Parkview School burglary. Entry was gained by breaking a cafeteria window and opening it.

An attempt to force the door to the kitchen area was unsuccessful, but entry was gained by forcing open a window in the item stolen kitchen to the cafeteria.

The frozen food was stolen from freezers in the kitchen.

Two charged

A 14-year-old Madison boy and a 17-year-old boy, 18, of 71 Grenzer Homes, Madison, were apprehended by Granite City State security guards in the 16th Street and Madison Avenue parking lot of the steel company and have been charged with auto burglary and criminal trespass to property.

Steel guards charged a window in the car of Albert H. Baker, 2213 Edwards St., was broken and the juvenile was caught inside the car.

An elderly woman ran away from the car, which was parked about 60 feet west, but was stopped by another guard. It was said the car to which he was running belonged to Willis and a lug wrench used to break Baker's auto window was found in the car.

The juvenile was taken to the Madison County Juvenile Detention Home for a hearing and Willis was lodged in the Granite City Jail.

asked to contact the Chamber of Commerce office, 878-6400, which is assisting the Madison County Board's Special Sewer Committee.

Engineer Edward Juneau said at yesterday's breakfast that about 300 easements remain to be obtained. It is planned to install the sewer lines through alley areas.

Where such easements can be obtained, he said, the lines will have to be installed by breaking up concrete streets and building laterals toward lots on each side of the street.

This would add to the cost of the work and also make it costlier when a home is connected to the sewer; many lines might have to be built from the rear of homes, circling them in the yard to reach the front of the lot. Such awkward and costly arrangements can be avoided by securing needed easements, the engineer related.

Juneau said Chouteau Township easements are "100 per cent" in and added that there is no problem with the 75 per cent state-federal financing that has been sought and approved.

"Most property owners in the areas to be served have signed, and the sewer connections can be provided at reasonable cost," Juneau said.

He stressed that the remaining easements are of extreme importance in keeping the cost to property owners within appropriate limits.

It was asserted at the Rotary breakfast that the federal government is moving toward requiring sanitary sewers for all homes.

Comments at the Chamber dinner stressed that future federal home loans make sanitary sewer service mandatory.

Labor endorsements in GC school race

Three of the six candidates seeking two Board of Education seats in the Granite City school election Saturday were endorsed by the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council.

The endorsements went to Norman Hall, an incumbent board member, and to Delton R. Grothius and Stephen C. Grothius, who are running for the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council.

Representatives of those two unions informed the trades council that the teachers and custodians have voted endorsements to Hall and Grothius.

Edwin F. Reiske, president of the trades council, said the plan was outlined at Wednesday night's meeting but no immediate action for or against participation in the plan was taken. He said a minimum of 10,000 union members must sign to participate in a trades council jurisdiction.

Bailey, 52, of 223 Hill St., Eagle Park Acres, was appointed to the board in March 1968 and won a two-year unexpired term that spring. He was elected to three-year terms in 1970 and 1973.

"I am the only black on the seven-member board of a district in which blacks make up 60 per cent of the enrollment," Bailey told the Press-Record. "Of course, as a board member I represent all students, not just the black."

Born in Rodney, Miss., Bailey has lived in the Venice area since 1944. He has worked for the Granite City Army Installation warehouse department for 32 years and is pastor of the Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Tommie, a Venice teacher aide, have five children.

Bailey pledges to seek adequate revenue with which to operate the Venice school system.

"I will help see to it that taxpayers' dollars are spent wisely, without jeopardizing the education of the children."

"I have sought to reduce expenses, cut back on the quantity of supplies, and avoid replacing retiring teachers

Mrs. Jacqueline Leatherman, 1051 Third St., is one of two incumbent Venice School Board members seeking re-election Saturday. There are three other candidates for the two positions. She was elected to the board to a three-year term in April 1973 after previous board service by appointment.

Mrs. Leatherman has three sons, Michael, an industrial engineer, Fred, a Monsanto Chemical Co. employee, and Patrick, a Venice grade school student.

A Venice resident most of his life, McIntosh attended St. Mark's School and Venice High School. He and his wife, Rosemary, have a son, Jason, two and a half years old.

He is running for the school board along with Gerald Cicio in opposition to present school policies and in the hope of changing the direction of the district's decisions.

Scholarships cited by coach as ice hockey players are honored

St. Louis University Billiken Coach Bill Selman told an audience of 400 persons here Monday night, "For the first time since formation of a college ice hockey program we are offering athletic scholarships in the sport right here in the metropolitan area."

Selman served as guest speaker in Madison, at a Granite City Amateur Ice Hockey Association post-season banquet honoring players in five divisions, ages 5-16. Mini-squirt, Squirt, Pee Wee, Bantam and Midget.

He said that the university in the past offered scholarships to athletes in such areas as Minnesota, Canada and the New England states.

"We involved in the sport, idolize the St. Louis Blues and other professional teams. Perhaps someday one of you who have had your basic training with this local association will be idolized in the future by other youngsters when you reach a professional caliber of competition."

Selman, coach of a team which in the last four seasons won 104 games, noted the Billikens this season failed to reach the national playoffs, "but we feel we had a successful year."

He encouraged parents, coaches and players to attempt to influence this area's high schools to incorporate the sport of ice hockey into their sports programs.

"Identical perhaps to some of the other sports we have here."

"Youth," he commented, "will have to do the job for us in continuing the sports growth. But, first, you have to do the job in the classroom."

He noted that 50 per cent of potential college ice hockey scholarship recipients are rejected because they have not fulfilled their responsibility to maintain good academic grade levels.

With Selman were four of his team's players who will graduate this year — Jan Kasek, Mike Ballanger, Lindsay Middlebrook and Brian Roll.

Next season, Kasek will see action as a professional player with the Houston club of the World Hockey Association and Ballanger will play with the St. Louis Blues.

"These four," said Selman, "reached their present level of competition through hard work combined with self-discipline, character and good academic records."

Unlike past banquets, Monday's sixth annual event did not see individual players receive awards for season efforts.

Instead, team coaches introduced players at their respective tables and commented on the entire squads. An exception was Coach Bill Hodge of the Midget "A"

Division's Lindsay Construction team, consisting of players ages 15-16.

"We concluded the 1976 season with a 26-7 record," said Hodge. "Some individuals deserve recognition for their roles in accomplishing that mark."

Hodge cited George Grove as having had the fewest number of penalties called against him (one), and John Krokovich as the squad's leading scorer for the second straight year. Hodge said the team's goalkeeper, Frank Prsha, had a "superb season," allowing only 15 goals per game to be scored against the team.

Coach Jerry Roderick of the Midget "B" division for ages 5-8, remarked, "We started the season with only three experienced players."

"We didn't have a winning season but we have trophies on our table, and they speak for us."

Nearly all teams were well blessed by the presence of trophies earned during the season for accomplishment of one feat or another.

Championship awards for winning division titles in a season-ending Granite City tournament here last month lined the tables of Knowles Ford (Pee Wee division ages 11-12), Sternberg Construction (Mini-squirt division ages 5-8), Lindsay Construction (Midget division ages 15-16) and Grov Plumber (Midget division).

13-school girls' track meet here Saturday; records up for grabs

GCHS South will host this Saturday its third annual girls' track and field meet. The annual meet, beginning at 9:30 a.m., will feature 13 schools.

Thirteen high school teams will be participating, including last year's winner, Belleville West, and 1974 victor Cahokia.

Included in the field also are Alton, Belleville East, Collinsville, East St. Louis Senior, Madison High School, O'Fallon, Triad St. Jacob-Marine-Troy, Wood River, GCHS North and GCHS South.

Charlotte Charbonnier, South track mentor, noted that this year's field of entries is the largest ever and many of the existing records may be broken.

In 1974, five teams competed, and last year, eight.

Cahokia is the present record holder in six track events and one field event: 100-yard dash 11.95 seconds, 220 dash 26.9, 440 dash 1:05, 880 run 2:35.2, 400 relay 54.1, 800 relay 1:52.7 and shot put 35 feet and 10 inches.

Belleville West girls have five meet records: mile run 5:56.05, two-mile run 12:36, mile relay 4:35.2, 80-yard hurdles 12.35 seconds and discus 94-9.

Belleville East holds marks in 110 low hurdles 16.1 seconds and long jump 16-4, while Oakville has the record in the high jump event at 4-9.

Some of these marks have been surpassed this season in regular competition, including the 80-yard hurdles by GCHS North's Margie Verschuyl with a time of 11 seconds.

In the inaugural meet here, the record in the high jump event at 4-9.

Rt. 111 crash injuries two

Two drivers were injured, one seriously, when their autos collided at Route 111 and State Aid Route 35 at 8 a.m. Tuesday.

Leo Signorello, 42, East Alton, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was transferred to the intensive care unit of Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, after his car became airborne, flipped over and came to a stop on its top about 300 feet north of the intersection. His condition improved to fair yesterday.

Illinois state police believe Signorello's auto was northbound on Route 111 and the auto of James L. Horton, 28, of 36 Janine Court, was southbound and turning left on a left turn traffic light when the two cars collided.

The impact ripped off much of the rear of Horton's auto. Two ambulances and the Long Lake Fire Department Rescue Squad were called to the scene and both drivers were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital. Firemen washed gasoline off the pavement, spilling from Signorello's overturned car.

Signorello suffered neck, ribs, back and leg pains and numbness to his feet. The numbness later spread and he was ordered transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

Horton was admitted to the hospital here with injuries to his neck and right knee and superficial injuries to his forehead. A series of x-rays was taken.

Infant Melissa Hocking dies

Melissa Dawn Hocking, 2-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Donna Sue) Hocking, 1713 Market St., was found in her crib Tuesday morning without signs of life.

She was pronounced dead at home by Tom Scaturro, Madison County deputy coroner. According to the infant's parents, the child had been under medical care for a cold. There will be an inquiry.

Other survivors include a brother, Christopher Michael Hocking, grandpa, Robert A. Hocking, Catskill, N. Y., Mrs. Gladys Nash, Venice, and Elmer Nash, Fenion, Mo., and great-grandparents, Mrs. Iva Cook, Venice, Mrs. Edna Lane, Catskill, N. Y., and Mrs. Donald Oliver, Quogue, N. Y.

Funeral services were held Wednesday. Details are given in the obituary column.

Cancer exams here April 20

The Urban League's Family Planning Clinic, 1238A 18th St., will offer free examinations for the prevention and detection of cancer of the female genital tract from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 20.

The decision to extend this additional service to all female residents of the community as part of an outreach effort was announced this week by Edward B. Smith, executive director, and Anna V. Wilson, R.N., clinic supervisor.

MATT 26:41... "Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing but the flesh is weak."

For Christ the hour was at hand. He knew it. He prayed the most earnest prayer any person has ever prayed. His sweat fell as it were great drops of blood from his body.

Under this great stress He gave us one of the most important commands we shall ever receive. "Watch and pray." We see the end is near upon us. If not as a nation then as individuals. Whose name will be invoked this week? Which of our loved ones may go out into eternity before this day is past? Watch and pray. It is not enough to just know these things; we must pray and prepare ourselves. Join with us. Watch and Pray. TODAY.

Challenge—teaching students how to think for themselves

One of the greatest challenges for educators is learning how to teach students to think for themselves, according to a group of guest speakers at an education colloquium on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

More than 60 educators from across the nation came to the SIUE campus for the colloquium entitled, "Education: The Construction of Knowledge." The event marked the School of Education's celebration of the university's tenth anniversary.

The first session, "On Personal Knowledge," was presented by Irving E. Sigel, senior research psychologist and director of the Child Care Research Center, Educational Testing Service at Princeton. He told educators they should remember that the facts they teach their school children may change and should not be taught as absolute facts.

"Facts are relative and tentative and do not have eternal validity," he said.

Frank B. Murray, director of graduate studies in education at the University of Delaware and president-elect of the Jean Piaget Society, spoke on "The Construction of Knowledge." He said that the difference between adults and children is not simply that adults have more knowledge but that they arrange knowledge differently.

As an example, he used a problem from a standard intelligence test. Given four choices, violin, cello, drum and guitar, he said a standard intelligence test would suppose that a person picking the three that go together would throw out drum as an answer. But he pointed out that there could be a variety of solutions.

"One child might not pick the guitar because it is not a symphony instrument," Murray said. "Another child might throw out cello because he does not know what it is."

"Piaget—a pioneer in the field of developmental and cognitive psychology—was much more interested in the mistakes children make to discover how they learn," he said.

Murray said this example should remind educators that curriculum should be designed for sequential development, or the types of learning children are capable of during various stages of their growth.

Eric A. Lunzer, professor of educational psychology for the School of Education at the University of Nottingham, spoke on research, "Current Issues and Problems." He said educational problems in the U.S. are similar to those faced in Great Britain.

"The problem is essentially this," he said. "A result of the expansion of education is that it has become not only universal education in elementary schools but also in junior and senior high schools."

"In universities, we have to provide an education that is relevant and universal for all our citizens. We are committed to provide an education that will be worthwhile for the population at large."

"These programs are devoted to children who will go through education and contribute some way in the future to this educational system. Those who do not fit in to the educational system are allowed to drop out," he said.

"It is now patently obvious

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., April 8, 1976 Page 9

that the education that was well-suited for these few was not suited for the vast majority," Lunzer said. "Now it is not suited even for the few." Lunzer said attitudes toward knowledge must be changed; the goal to which educators are aiming must be to help produce "people who have initiative, people who have innovation and people who can cope with new situations and problems."

"The things that one learns are the things that one does," Lunzer continued. "What we are seeking to build is imaginativeness, flexibility, acceptance of the opinions of others, reconciliation of our own limitations and acceptance of genius wherever we find it."

"We can only do this by creating situations in which this behavior can actually happen," he explained. "We cannot do this by having a situation where students cannot make mistakes and are patted on the head for being a good boy."

"We find ourselves teaching kids in the third grade what they did not learn in the second, and in the fourth grade what they would not learn in the third. By the fifth and sixth grades, they are existing education."

Lunzer called for a change in this pattern and said educators must teach students to think for themselves.

He added that in England, educators have been in on developing new curriculum programs, whereas in America program texts are often derived by mathematicians, scientists or psychologists not actively engaged in the classroom.

According to Thomas C. O'Brien, professor of education at SIUE and director of the University's Teachers' Center Project, the colloquium was designed to "help children to grow."

"The means of achieving that goal is to bring educational leaders together to consider the latest thinking and research on how intellectual growth takes place."

The Teachers' Center Project was co-sponsored of the colloquium.

Lack of aid may cut GC summer school program

Students registering for summer school classes in the Granite City public schools probably will not know until a few days before classes start whether their classes will actually be held, Frank L. Kraus, assistant superintendent of schools, told the Board of Education during its meeting Tuesday night.

Kraus explained the state still has not reimbursed the district for most of last year's summer school expenditures and may run out of funds before a full reimbursement is made.

"The state says it can't give out money for summer school when it needs it for the regular program," Kraus explained.

"We are still planning a regular program for this summer, but it may become necessary at the last minute to really cut back on the summer school program. It may be a skeleton program," he warned.

He said priority would be given to classes needed to bring failing students up to the level of those who passed the classes during the regular school year, but those may be the only classes actually held unless additional state funding is found.

"We have to set up priorities. There is no money anywhere else that we could utilize for summer school," he told the board.

Tully A. Heubner, director of business affairs for the school district, explained Wednesday that the district was to receive its summer school reimbursement in six equal payments, but only two have been received.

Checks totaling about $52,000 each were received one each in February and March, which is only about one-third of last summer's program claim.

"Normally, we receive full reimbursement in December, but this year the state informed us they are breaking it up into six monthly payments. We just don't know if we will receive all six before the state decides it needs the money for the regular program," Heubner explained.

A reduction in the formula by which the state is paying its state aid claims to the state superintendent of public instruction and the schools is the basis of the problem, he explained.

Since it is unclear at this time how much money will be made available for state reimbursements to schools for the regular school year, the reimbursements for last year's summer school, which have a lower priority, could stop at any time, Heubner noted.

He said the local district's administrators will be watching the state reimbursements closely from now until the opening of summer school to determine if a full summer-school program will be held or if the program will have to be trimmed.

"If we receive a letter from the state telling us there will be no more reimbursements from last year's summer school, we will then trim the program. If we receive notification we will receive full reimbursement for last year's summer school claim, then we will announce the full summer school program now being planned will be implemented," Heubner concluded.

Easter egg hunt at Wilson Park April 17

The Granite City Park District will hold its annual Easter egg hunt on Saturday, April 17, at the Wilson Park Ice Rink.

The Easter Egg Hunt will be divided into three groups—pre-school, kindergarten and first grade.

First graders will hunt at 9 a.m., kindergarten children at 10:15 a.m. and pre-schoolers at 11 a.m.

Prizes will be awarded in each group. They include: a prize for the child who finds the "Golden Egg"; most eggs found by a boy; most eggs found by a girl; and the child who finds the most eggs.

Each child is required to bring his own container for the eggs.

This year for the first time, colored plastic eggs filled with candy jelly-bird eggs will be hidden, instead of the foil covered eggs used in the past.

The eggs are colorful and should make it easier for the children to find, organizers said. They will be hidden in mounds of hay scattered about the floor of the ice rink. By holding the hunt inside the rink, it eliminates the risk of cancellation due to inclement weather and makes it easier to contain youngsters within an enclosed area, park officials explained.

No child will leave the hunt empty-handed, it was stressed. All participating children will receive at least one Easter egg even if they are unsuccessful in the hunt.

Poag Road paving bids

The Illinois Department of Transportation will receive bids on 107 highway and two waterway improvement projects on Friday, April 23.

Total value of projects to be let, which include several on Illinois' interstate and supplemental freeway systems, is about $85 million. Included is construction of 2.9 miles of concrete pavement on Poag Road from Illinois Route 111 easterly, including a railroad grade separation structure.

Window shot out, 3 face charges

Three men face multiple charges that were filed after shots were fired through the window of Mrs. Lillian Kackinczuk's home in Madison at 1 a.m. Tuesday.

John James Ballentine, 34, of 204 Broadway, Venice; Johnny L. Pellazari, 31, of 707 Twenty-seventh Place, and Robert J. Porter, 18, of 1230 Second St., Madison, have been charged with unlawful use of a firearm, destruction of property and reckless conduct.

The three have been released by the court on $3,000 recognizance bond.

Mrs. Kackinczuk said she was awakened by the sound of breaking glass. As she telephoned police, however, Madison police in a patrol car in the vicinity of the house heard what sounded like a gunshot.

As the police car was west-bound on Seventh street approaching Iowa street, the officer saw a pickup truck going north on Iowa, the direction from which he heard the sound of the shot.

Madison police radioed for assistance and the pickup truck with three men in it was stopped at 18th street and Niedringhaus Avenue.

Police reported finding a 12-gauge shotgun in the truck, which allegedly contained one spent 12-gauge shell.

Brake Family to sing here

The Brake Family, gospel singers of Clarksville, Tenn., will present a program Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave.

The family group of nine members also will make appearances at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Sunday at the City Temple, 1917 Edison Ave., and at 2:30 p.m. at Bethel Chapel, 25th Street and Ohio Avenue.

Also performing on the musical programs will be The Singing Champions and the Kings' Daughters.

'Update' meeting planned

A breakfast meeting of merchants, City Council members and representatives of the "Update" Corp. of Greenville concerning the remodeling and revitalizing of the Madison shopping area will be held within the next two weeks, according to Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk.

Sasyk told the council at its meeting Tuesday night that drawings and recommendations for interested merchants will be ready soon. The mayor said that several of the local Madison merchants are eager to begin the local improvement programs.

The council enacted an ordinance requiring a doctor's statement before any city employee may be paid sick leave. A daily absentee report from each department head, along with any statements as to absences, is to be submitted on a daily basis to the city comptroller's office.

Mayor Sasyk asked the aldermen to turn in the names of senior citizens from their wards for burglar alarm installations. The city is installing 50 alarms to needy citizens with priority going to those over 65 years of age.

Sasyk appointed Aldermen Ray Kozielek, Booker Walton, Paul Ashford and Donald Broyles to a Budget Committee and instructed them to begin preparation of next year's city budget.

"We will give you a statement of just what our present situation is and the anticipated income for the coming year. As we know, money for city operation is very tight and will get tighter in the coming years, I'm afraid," Sasyk said.

Long Lake approves more fire hydrants

The Long Lake Fire Protection District Board of Trustees decided Monday night to have the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. install three new fire hydrants in the fire district.

The new plugs are to be installed in the near future on Dawn Avenue, Cheshire Avenue and in the middle of Westmoreland Drive.

Board President Harold Davis commented the three additional fire hydrants will bring the total the district now is renting to 18 and he does not feel the district could financially support any more hydrants.

The hydrant rental is being paid from a $10,000 grant from Nameoki Township's federal revenue sharing fund.

The board considered the possibility of selling an anticipation warrant for about $8,000 to make the final payment to the Long Lake

Volunteer Fire Department, but decided to withhold action on that item.

It was noted the fire department does not yet need the money and it would not be economical to pay interest on the money by borrowing it before it is needed.

6,000 Lion pancakes

Over 6,000 pancakes are expected to be served Sunday to an estimated 1,200 persons at the Madison Lions Club's annual pancake day at the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh and Lee streets, between 7 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12 years of age. Tickets are available from club members or at the door. Albert Hudzik is the president of the Madison Lions Club.

Easter dinner circle topic

The Easter Prayer Dinner, set for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Wesley Hall at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, was the topic of discussion at the Loyalty Circle's monthly meeting.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Geraldine Thomas, in her home, 2909 Sunset Drive, prior to the meeting.

Mrs. Woodie Lynn, leader, opened the session by reading a poem, "Song of Salem." She also led a discussion on Bicentennial Sunday to be held May 16, when each member is being asked to wear "old fashioned" dresses and bonnets.

The program was given by Miss Mable Stewart who read a poem, "Flowers," and "The Easter Story" and "Last Supper and the Resurrection" taken from the books, Ideals and Family Album.

Following the lesson, Mrs. Clara Huber showed slides taken on her trip to the Holy Land.

Others attending were Mesdames Mary Ahlvers, Doris Wigger, Dorothy Allen, Lillian Compton, Mary Louise Niepert, Jan Kohl, Reba Wallace and Miss Kathryn Van Order.

Also present were two new members, Mrs. Bessie Milton and Mrs. Garnet McGovern, and a guest, Mrs. Irma McLeod. Misses Mable Stewart and Van Order will host the May meeting.

Swampy tract designated as 'Whitsell Park'

"I wish they had named it something else," Louis Whitsell, Nameoki Township supervisor, commented after Madison County created a sign beside a near swampy tract along Route 111 north of the viaduct and near Route 162, officially designating the seven-acre tract as "Whitsell Park."

Whitsell said he has received some comment since the sign was erected by the county, and since the name was chosen by the County Board's education and recreation committee, of which he is committee chairman.

"I'm not too proud my name's on it. It was more of a joke by the others than anything else, since it is just a swamp now, but we hope someday to make it something to be proud of," Whitsell told the Press-Record.

The tract was donated to the county by Keeley Brothers Construction Co. after repeated demands for Whitsell, the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors and the township health officer to improve drainage, cut weeds and clean up the property.

It was a borrow pit from which dirt was removed to construct the nearby Route 111 viaduct, Whitsell noted.

Eagle scouts to be feted

An Eagle Scout Recognition dinner will be held Saturday in the Mississippi-Illinois Room at the University Center of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Nine young men who earned scouting's Eagle Scout Award during 1975 from the Cahokia Mound Council will be honored. Eagles to be honored are John L. Brusatti, Richard Taylor and Bruce Rotter of Granite City; William H. Dorman, Maryville; Gary W. Obermeyer, Madison; Ronald C. Mohr, Alan L. Gerstenecker and Timothy Delaney, all of Collinsville; and John W. Schwartz of Highland.

The event is being held in cooperation with the Piasa Bird Council, with offices in Wood River, which also will be honoring their 1975 Eagle Scouts.

L. Allen Klope, president of Manpower Resources of the Piasa Bird Council, will act as master of ceremonies and G. H. Sternberg of Granite City will be the speaker.

Rotter, one of the 1975 Eagles, will respond for the others being honored, to a challenge to be given by Eagle Scout Steve Nolan. Rotter is the Great Central Area Explorer chairman, Assistant scoutmaster of Troop 8 and president of Explorer Post 104.

Services held for Mrs. L. J. Conley

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at a Granite City funeral home for Mrs. Lillian J. Conley, 62, of 501A Madison Ave., Madison. She died at 4 a.m. Monday at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Wilma LaPlante of Sierra Vista, Ariz.; three sons, Lloyd Conley of Madison, Herschel Conley of Granite City and Robert Conley of Germany; a brother, William Yarnsanz of Arizona; one sister, Mrs. Ann McGarvey of Phoenix, Ariz.; and eight grandchildren.

Burial was in St. John Cemetery, 2801 Nameoki Road.

FUTURE SITE OF WHITSELL PARK COMMITTEE MEMBERS LOUIS WHITSELL WAYNE BRIDGEWATER ANTHONY BOSICH

CONTROVERSIAL SIGN erected by the Madison County Board's education and recreation committee designating a seven-acre tract of near swamp land as "Whitsell Park." Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell is chairman of that committee, which also has Wayne Bridgewater and Anthony Bosich as committee members. The park is on the east side of Route 111 just north of the viaduct near Route 162.

whiling to put his name on this park, Whitsell said the county always is willing to accept donated property for parks.

"That is the job of my committee, to find donated land for parks," he noted.

He said the offers of donated land in the Dobrey Slough area were turned down by the county because of stipulations in the agreement.

One stipulation would have prohibited any water from running across nearby property. "We would have had to dam up the Dobrey Slough," he commented.

Another stipulation was that, should the county later purchase adjoining property to expand the park, the county would have to pay the owners of the donated land a price equivalent to that paid for the adjoining property, he recalled.

He cited several parks the county has started as examples the committee is always willing to accept donated land. Among those cited was the nature trail, leased for $1 from the Illinois Terminal Railroad Association, the park on Maryville Road at Old Alton Road, leased from the East Side Levee and Sanitary District for $1; Moro Park in Bethalto, Quergus Grove Park near Edwardsville and a Wood River park which was jointly purchased by the county and Wood River Township.

Asked if he felt it would be proper to use Manpower workers loaned to the township, to help clear a county park, Whitsell said the Manpower workers actually are county employees and can be used for any county or township project the Manpower office approves.

Illinois 'fair trade' rules overturned by federal act

By VIRGINIA KNAUER

Special Assistant to the President and Director

Office of Consumer Affairs

Department of Health, Education and Welfare

Have you ever wondered why certain products never seem to be discounted? It could be because they are "fair trade" items—those whose prices are fixed by manufacturers for sale at the retail level.

But now, a new law makes it illegal for this practice to continue.

Under the Consumer Goods Pricing Act of 1975, retailers—and not manufacturers—will be able to set the prices for the things they sell, thereby enabling consumers to compare shop for products at the lowest possible prices.

The new law went into effect March 12.

It repeals two old laws—the Miller-Tydings Act of 1937, and the McGuire Act of 1952—that amended the federal antitrust legislation so that "fair trading" could take place.

Since the enactment of these two federal laws 46 states passed fair trade statutes.

But, over the years, many of these states began repealing these laws on their own.

In fact, since January 1975, 15 state legislatures nullified their fair trade statutes; 21 states still had fair trade laws on the books when the new federal law was enacted.

Without these state laws, retailers will again be able to set prices on a more competitive basis and will enable consumers in all 50 states to shop for products at the lowest possible prices.

The new law should help consumers save money on a variety of products—both large and small.

According to the Justice Department, repeal of state fair trade laws will encourage more price competition by retailers.

Just how much this price competition could help consumers was demonstrated when the department conducted a study on fair trading.

The study found that the freeing of retail prices from manufacturer's control could save consumers an estimated $1 billion a year.

Where will these savings be realized? Especially on stereo components, television sets, appliances, mattresses, kitchenware, watches, jewelry, bicycles and prescription drugs.

These are the products that are most frequently fair traded.

The 21 states affected by this new federal legislation are: Arizona, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Patchworkers to attend hearing

Members of the Patchworkers 4-H Club will attend a mock "public hearing" at the Madison County Farm Bureau Building in Edwardsville tonight. It was announced at a meeting held in the St. Elizabeth School cafeteria. Debbie Burnett, president, opened the meeting. Christy Kessler led the pledge to the flag and Mickey Loftus recited the 4-H pledge. Concert-recital Sunday at St. Peter

Two events planned for Sunday at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard, are the opening of Holy Week services in the morning and an evening organ recital and choral concert.

During the 10:15 a.m. Palm Sunday service members of the 1926 confirmation class will be honored on their 50th anniversary. A reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall, arranged by the Special Events Committee, after the service.

Members of the class are Alvin August Michal, Delmar O. Rasche, Dr. John H. F. Wedig, Raymond L. F. Hilker, Earl W. Niepert, Merrill C. Niepert, Elmer L. Jackson, Mrs. Bernice (Pesch) Fiedler, Mrs. Ruth (Holloway) Vencotter, Mrs. Ruby (Puhse) Meyer, Mrs. Dorothea (Jansen) Ashley and Mrs. Leola Krieger, a member of the adult class.

Deceased members of the 1926 class are Herman H. Thieller, Walter Henry Krohn, James Smart, Mrs. Marie (Tritschuh) Roben and Mrs. Florence (Walters) Marshall.

Both the Junior and Cherub Choirs will sing at the worship service and the Junior Holy Handbell Choir will play. The Rev. Robert Kettelhut, pastor, will continue his series of Lenten meditations on "Profiles of the Passion."

Ron Matson will present an organ recital and the Chancel Choir of the church will follow with a choral concert at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

The recital and concert are being sponsored by the Music Committee of the church, with Clifford Mason serving as chairman.

Matson will play selections by J. S. Bach, Johann Kellner, Ernest Pepping, Johannes Brahms, Marie Vidor and Louis Vierne. He is a 1976 graduate of Granite City High School and a member of St. Peter Church.

Currently a graduate assistant at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, Matson will complete the requirements for the master of music degree this year. His duties on the staff of the music department presently include vocal coaching, instrumental accompanying, teaching organ privately and assisting in choral conducting.

Matson studied organ with Eugene Hill for four years both at the graduate and the undergraduate level. The latter when he received the B.A. degree in mathematics from Miami in 1974. He is a member of the national honorary Phi Beta Kappa and plans to remain at Oxford through August to complete research for a paper in the field of musicology and music theory.

The Chancel Choir, under the

RON MATSON
Organist

direction of Robert Hutcheson, organist-choirmaster, will perform the cantata, "Hallelujah! What a Savior!" by John W. Peterson.

Hutcheson is completing his doctorate requirements at Washington University, St. Louis, a degree he plans to receive this year. He came to St. Peter Church in 1973 and, in addition to his duties as organist, conducts the Chancel, Handbell, Junior, and Junior Holy Handbell choirs.

The public is invited to the special musical program on Palm Sunday evening at 7:30. "We are presenting this inspirational program as a meaningful beginning to Holy Week and an expression of praise to God as we at St. Peter celebrate our 75th anniversary year," said the Rev. Kettelhut.

Ample parking is provided in the church's lighted lot and child care will be provided for pre-schoolers. A coffee hour in honor of Matson and the Chancel Choir will follow the recital-concert in Fellowship Hall.

MISSING FROM HOME
Helen Rehmus, 2530 Parkview Drive, Apt. 2, reported at noon Tuesday that a $50 camera and a $130 wristwatch have been missing from her apartment since last month.

St. Margaret Mary scene of Levy-Coyle wedding

Tall altar vases holding arrangements of white fuchsia, pink and white flowers, baskets of palms and aisle standards festooned with clusters of white fuchsia and pink pom-poms provided the setting at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church for the wedding on March 27 of Miss Kathleen Lois Coyle and John "Jack" Martin Levy.

Father Dave Voelker, a friend of the groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 in the evening.

Nuptial selections included "Wedding Song," "Sunset Sunrise," "Wedding March," "Lady," "Ave Maria," "Colour My World" and "For Baby."

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome T. Coyle, 4 Shirwin Drive. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levy, 805 N. 22nd St., East St. Louis.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of candlelight sateu peau fastened with a molded velvet bishop sleeves and a scoop neckline appliqued with peau d'ange lace, embellished with pearls.

The A-line skirt, falling softly from the empire waist, was bordered with matching lace, etched with seed pearls.

Bedecked lace motifs accented the attached chapel train and her melody-length veil of candlelight illusion was secured to a cup of deep d'angle lace and her melody-length veil of elongated cascade of white fuchsia and white roses, centered with a detachable white orchid corsage.

Maid of honor was Miss Camille Bisseth, a cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Stroyoff, Mrs. Sandy Weissenborn, Misses Alice and Ruth Levy, sisters of the groom, and Miss Karen Poy.

They were gown in formal-length halter dresses created of nine green polyester jersey and complemented with matching emerald green full-length coats. Emerald green trimming enhanced the necklines and bodices.

Each attendant wore a matching emerald green Juliet cap and held a cascade of white fuchsia and pink roses with green cymbidium orchids.

Melissa Coyle, the bride's sister, served as flower girl. She wore a long frock of candlelight chiffon over taffeta trimmed with eylet lace. A green and white fuchsia and pink roses and ribbon marked the bodice and skirt and she had a matching ribbon in her hair. She held a wicker basket of pink roses and white and green blossoms.

Eric Levy, a nephew of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Attending the groom as best man was Rick Kurowski. Groomsmen were Mark and Francis Levy, brothers of the groom, Patrick Coyle, the bride's brother, Pete Soener and Benny Malczewski.

Guests to the reception at the church were Michael and Brian Coyle, the bride's brothers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Coyle selected a long pink jersey gown worn with a short jacket. The groom's mother, Mrs. Levy, was attired in a full-length yellow jersey dress and jacket ensemble. Both wore corsages of orchids and Sweetheart roses in hues to match their attire.

Guests were received by the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Levy at a reception held at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

The rehearsal dinner was served to the bridal party and their families at Charlie's Restaurant.

The couple is now residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Tampa and Miami, Fla.

A Granite City High School graduate, the former Miss Coyle attended Eastern Illinois University for two years. She is now employed at Metro-East Industrial Supply.

The groom was graduated from Assumption High School, East St. Louis and St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kan., where he earned a degree in psychology. He now works at McDonnell-Douglas Corp., St. Louis.

Mrs. Iva Nichols, 81, crochets flag

An acceptance and dedication ceremony was held last week at the Colonial Haven Nursing Home, attended by 55 residents. Staff members and officers at the facility also were present.

The occasion honored Mrs. Iva Nichols, 81, who crocheted a large American flag and presented the pennant to Colonial Haven.

Mrs. Nichols decided to crochet the flag last December to mark the Bicentennial Year, but after three months of hard work, the finished product did not meet with her approval.

She then elected to take the flag apart and remake it, nursing home officials said.

Mrs. Nichols' painstaking endeavor finally was completed in late March and she decided to present the flag to the nursing home.

At the dedication ceremony,

Roy Grover served as the flag bearer and Mrs. Joyce Keith led the group in repeating the pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Della Spengler offered a prayer of dedication. A poem, entitled "The Stars and Stripes," was read by Mrs. Gustia Webb in Mrs. Nichols' honor.

Speeches of acceptance were given by Lester Robinson, administrator, and Mrs. Long, director of nurses.

The program concluded with the "Star Spangled Banner" sung by Mrs. Sandy Smith. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Pat Golden.

Seek candidates for 1st Miss County Fair

The 1976 version of the annual Madison County Fair will take on new dimensions with the introduction of the first "Miss Madison County Fair" pageant to be held in the Exposition Hall at Lindendale Park, Highland, home of the week-long festivity which begins July 26.

In announcing the inauguration of a pageant, the Madison County Fair Association notes it is joining an estimated 35 other counties in the state in choosing a young woman to represent the fair in January each year at an Illinois State County Fair pageant held in Springfield.

The county fair state winner receives a $1,000 scholarship to the school of her choice, it was announced.

State to mark hi-speed railroad crossings here

An agreement between the city and the Illinois Department of Transportation under which the state highway department will place new railroad warning signs at all Granite City grade crossings through which Amtrak trains travel at high rates of speed was authorized by the City Council Monday night.

The aldermen authorized Mayor Paul Schuler to sign a DOT document which provides that the state will install the warnings without cost to the city at all Illinois Central Gulf crossings.

The action was taken on a letter from H. R. Handley, director of highways of the Illinois DOT who said the state also will maintain them for an evaluation period of at least one year, and will replace the signs if it is decided they are not to be made standard.

The letter said:

Recent fatal accidents have focused attention on the safety problems associated with railroad-highway grade crossings. A Railroad Grade Crossing Task Force was formed in our department to study these problems and develop recommendations for appropriate improvements. The first phase of this effort involves the early installation and evaluation of warning devices at crossings along the high speed Chicago-St. Louis Amtrak rail line.

The department has elected to use and evaluate design revision of presently used controls and the addition of a new sign warning of high speed trains. We are also planning to include placement of standard railroad pavement markings, in thermoplastic material, where roadway surfaces are adequate for such markings and approaches to crossings.

These various measures, as well as some revisions to the railroad company's devices, will be the subject of a comprehensive evaluation. State and federal clearances to legally use the devices will be obtained by our department.

With your concurrence, we would like to have a state contractor erect or place, completely at state expense, the signs and markings described above along the municipal street approaches to the Illinois Central Gulf Amtrak crossings in your community. The railroad advance warning signs will either be added where none are currently in place or will replace the existing W10-1 signs.

The high speed train warning signs will be new. We will maintain the devices during the evaluation period or a minimum of one year. If, after the results of the evaluation are available, it is determined the signs are not to be made standard, we will remove them and replace them, where appropriate, with standard controls.

This program has been discussed with the Liaison Committee of the County Superintendents of Highways Association. They unanimously passed a resolution endorsing this project at their Jan. 30, 1976, meeting in Springfield.

State budget 'tightrope' will require delicate balancing act

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
Executive Vice President
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Two big events in the taxation field take place during April. First, on April 8, the Illinois General Assembly returned to Springfield to commence working on appropriation bills that will gear state spending for the fiscal year 1977 (July 1, 1976 to July, 1977).

Second, April 15 is the final day for federal income tax returns for 1976 for individuals. These events focus on the word "taxes," something that takes an increasingly big bite out of everyone's income.

It is a fact of life that taxes, reasonably assessed and levied, are necessary to finance schools, roads, public aid, administration expenses and other necessary purposes in our American society.

Of immediate concern to Illinois taxpayers is what the General Assembly does with the governor's fiscal 1977 state budget of $9,900,000,000. Critical is what is done with the $5,650,000,000 in general revenue fund appropriations, an increase of $307 million or 5.7 per cent over the current year.

We use the word "critical," because if much is tacked on to the $5.65 billion figure, the general revenue fund part of the budget will be all out of whack and tax increases will be just around the corner, if not already here.

The Illinois Senate and House have outstanding Appropriation Committees, chaired by Senator Thomas C. Hynes and Representative Thaddeus S. Lechowicz.

As these committees did yeoman duty in 1975, we feel that they will again examine the fiscal 1977 budget bills with minute care and make valid recommendations back to the floor of the houses.

The members of these committees can and should recommend changes in spending bills as they see fit. But they must establish priorities, and the earlier they do so, the better.

We hope there is cooperation and a "working together" of the legislative and executive branches in this regard. We feel there is just not enough increased revenue in present tax-supported funds to satisfy the demands of all agencies or groups seeking more funds.

Then, too, the governor's budget as outlined in his message delivered to the General Assembly on March 3 calls for legislative proposals to speed up collections of taxes to expedite the state's cash flow for fiscal 1977.

Such expediting pertains to requiring certain businesses to pay over to the state more promptly the sales taxes collected from customers and the withholding taxes collected from employees, and would also require corporations to pay state income taxes in accordance with the timetable established for payment of federal income taxes (from April 15 to March 15).

Thurs., April 8, 1976 Page 28

Even if these measures are passed, they only result in a one-shot bonanza of $90 million for fiscal 1977, and then fiscal 1978 will hurt that much more. Whoever is governor in the spring of 1977 will earn his salary in balancing income against outgo in preparing the state's budget for fiscal 1978.

Amvets commander urges recruitment

National Amvets Commander Paul C. Welsh of Columbus, Ohio, stressed the importance of increasing Amvets membership and urged special attention to be given by local posts to the recruitment of Vietnam veterans when he spoke Monday evening at Amvets Post 51, 5100 Lakeview Drive.

Addressing area Amvets officers and members at a reception and dinner at the Granite City post home, the national commander also congratulated Post 51 for its continuing program of recognizing historic Pearl Harbor Day each year with memorial services and tributes to those who died.

Commander Welsh was accompanied here by Mrs. Toni Gomulinski of Potomac, Md., National Amvets Auxiliary president; Illinois Amvets Commander Norman Bess of Bartonville; and Illinois Auxiliary President Lois McCann of Chicago.

Prior to the evening dinner, the national and state officers were entertained at Amvets Post 294 in Madison.

The official entourage was greeted at Post 51 by Commander Adam Petras and Mrs. Jackie Petras, auxiliary president.

In a roundtable discussion with local and state auxiliary members, Mrs. Gomulinski also emphasized membership recruitment and participation in all Amvets programs.

The national president and Mrs. McCann were presented Bicentennial bells as gifts from the local auxiliary.

A buffet dinner was served to 75 by the Post 51 auxiliary. The club rooms were decorated with bouquets of fresh cut flowers and American and 200th anniversary flags.

Special guests also included Andy Sgroi, National Amvets bugler; Kenneth Hall, 5th Division commander; and Jim King, 15th District commander, Mount Vernon, Ill.; Vasil Gravelle, 25th District commander, Madison.

Missouri State Amvets Commander Bill Thompson and Bill White and Paul Stricklin, all of St. Louis County; and Alan Rich of Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Terri White, National Amvets Auxiliary sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Rachel Stricklin, Missouri State Auxiliary president, both of St. Louis County; and Mrs. Mary Rich, VAVS representative (veterans service) at Marion (Ill.) Veterans Hospital.

MHS students reinstated

The Madison Board of Education reinstated two high school youths on probation and allowed the parents of another youth to withdraw him from school at a special meeting Tuesday evening.

In other business the board granted the Madison Lions Club permission to use a large mixer for its annual pancake brunch to be held Sunday; approved the Madison Mother's Club request to hold its annual like safety program and carnival on Saturday, May 1 at Louis Baer school; authorized school cooks to participate in a level-one cook workshop to be held in June in Granite City and a Level-Three workshop to be held in Carbondale.

Business preparation program at Blackburn

A program designed to help students with career planning and success in the business world will be launched this fall at Blackburn College in Carlinville.

It is called the Business Preparation Program. An endowed chair, the William and Leonie Walton Memorial Chair, will be part of the program.

"We want to educate our students broadly in the liberal arts tradition, but also provide them with the knowledge and skills necessary for entry into the business world, if that is the direction they want to go," the Blackburn president, Dr. John Alberti, has reported.

"You have to learn how to find a job just as you learn how to do anything else," Dr.

Edward Wallen, dean of the college, added. "For that reason, we hope to teach our students how to prepare a resume, how to interview, how to find what jobs are available, how to research the company they are interested in, how to set career goals and how to attain these goals."

Students at Blackburn College work 15 hours a week at on-campus duties in addition to pursuing their studies. The Work-Study Plan has been in operation since 1913.

Pres. Alberti commented "The Business Preparation Program has a natural tie-in with the Work-Study Plan."

"Blackburn students have always combined work and study, but we want their campus work experience to be a help to them after they leave the campus."

"Many times our students have had valuable managerial experience while in attendance at the college, or they have learned a new skill. We want them to be able to articulate this to their prospective employer."

We see the Business Preparation Program as a help in this area, too."

Dr. Alberti said the Business Preparation Program had its beginning at a meeting held on the campus in September. A number of businessmen met with college administrators and professors to discuss the feasibility of such an emphasis.

In attendance were Dr. Robert Adams, vice president of the IBM Corp.; William Alley, president, Franklin Life Insurance Co.; Harold Gunther, senior vice-president, Dean Witter and Co.; Albert Myers, president, Myers Brothers Department Stores; Marshall Myers, partner, Alexander Grant and Co.; Robert Quenon, president, Monterey Coal Co.; Robert Reuss, president, Central Telephone and Utilities Corp.; and Dr. Herbert Woodward, president, International Science Industries, Inc.

They identified the qualities they look for in a person seeking entry into their businesses.

Some of the qualities mentioned were the possession of good communication skills, both verbal and written; ability to get along with others; and an understanding of the role of business in American society.

"It is important that the individual be civic minded and possess the social graces. There is a need also to know how to interview and how to research the organization where employment is being sought. It is vital that the individual have certain skills necessary for initial hiring," Dr. Wallen said.

"The Business Preparation Program involves 19 hours of course work. Courses include Career Planning and Human Development, plus a Career Entry Seminar. Because it is felt one cannot function in our society without a knowledge of computers, a course in that area is also required."

"There is a course on the Role of Business in Society and one on Case Studies in Business. The student seeking the Business Preparation Program certificate may also choose from accounting, management and marketing courses to complete the 19 hours."

"A Practicum is planned whereby a student will have the opportunity to work in business and interface practical experience with academic studies. Management of personal finances will be stressed.

A director of the Business Preparation Program is being sought from the ranks of business. He or she must have had recent, high-level corporate experience, must have an undergraduate liberal arts degree and must possess a master's or professional degree.

Wheat diseases found in county

By RON CORNWELL

Agricultural Extension Adviser
Wheat diseases are beginning to show up in many wheat fields in Madison County. The two diseases commonly showing up are wheat streak mosaic and septoria.

Characteristics of the wheat streak mosaic disease include a yellow streaking of the wheat leaves. This yellow streaking may go to the tip of the leaves.

The virus causing the disease is spread in the fall by the wheat curl mite. This disease will cause stunting of the wheat plants and may affect wheat head formation.

Controlling volunteer wheat in the fall can help reduce problems with this disease.

The symptom of septoria is the appearance of yellow leaves.

As these yellow areas age, small black specks form in the centers of these areas. The septoria disease is caused by a fungus.

If I plant oats or soybeans on ground that was treated with atrazine last year, will they be injured by atrazine residue?

This is a frequently asked question that can be answered by the farmer himself by making what is called a crop bioassay.

A bioassay is performed by growing plants of the crop you plan to grow in soil samples from the field that was treated last year.

If the test plants are injured, you can probably expect crop injury in the field. The closer to planting soil samples are taken, the better indication you will have.

Following are suggestions for doing a crop bioassay:

SOIL SAMPLE: Gather samples from several areas in the field as you do when sampling for soil fertility testing. Headlands and knolls are often areas of expected high residue. You may want to run a separate test on samples from these areas. About one gallon of soil per test is needed.

CHECK SAMPLE: You should have an untreated (check) soil sample for use in comparing seedlings from treated and untreated soils. Take this from a field where atrazine was not used last year.

POTTING SOIL: You should plant two or three cartons each of the "treated" and "check" soil. This will reduce the chance of your drawing incorrect conclusions. Pint or quart cans or cardboard containers can be used. Punch holes in the bottom for drainage.

PLANTING SEEDS: Plant 15 oat seeds or six soybean seeds per container. Plant the seeds about one-half inch deep. Water the soil, but do not saturate it. Then keep the soil moist but not overwet. It takes two to three weeks for atrazine injury to show. Place the containers in a warm place where they will receive sunlight. Light is essential for producing atrazine symptoms.

ATRAZINE SYMPTOMS: Injury symptoms appear on oats as leaf "burn" from the tip toward the leaf base. Soybean injury appears as a browning or mottling of the unifoliate or first trifoliate leaves. Severe injury will completely kill the seedlings. Marginal injury may be indicated by a tendency to lean over, or discoloration.

MINIMIZE INJURY: If atrazine injury is marginal, you can minimize injury in the field by delaying planting and by thoroughly mixing the soil during seedbed preparation (plowing instead of disking).

GOP Citizens' Council to meet

The Republican Citizens Council of Madison County will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Peoples, West Main Street and Combs Avenue, Collinsville.

Guest speakers will be Dr. Edward Ragdale, Republican newly-elected Republican chairman for Madison County, and William Stiehl of Belleville, Republican state central committee member from the 23rd Congressional District, and candidate for Lt. Governor, Dave O'Neal of Belleville.

The Republican Citizens Council was chartered in 1975 to provide an organization for citizens through which they can become informed about and actively support Republican candidates and the Republican party at all levels of government.

President Frank Flanigan urged the public to attend to hear, meet and talk with the leaders of the Republican party in this county.

FIRE DESTROYS AUTO

Fire destroyed the auto of Harvey Scarce, 2408 N. Adams St., at 20th and Adams streets last week. The cause is believed to have been faulty electrical wiring in the firewall. Flames spread to both the engine and the dashboard. The car was valued at $350. Granite City firemen fought the blaze 20 minutes.

Downtown tree planting

Downtown Granite City, Inc., in cooperation with city officials, began a beautification program Tuesday with the planting of trees as the first phase of a long-range plan for redevelopment of the downtown area, according to Rudy Novik, president of Downtown GC.

Novik said that Russell Walker, vice-president of the organization, was the "driving force" in getting the beautification program started. The merchants are paying for the planting of the trees. To have a tree planted in front of a business, the merchants must be a member of Downtown Granite City, Inc.

Novik said that the merchants along with the mayor and City Council want everyone to share in the "Pride of the Community."

Pet adoptions Saturday

An Easter pet adoption clinic is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday by the Quad-City Association for Protection of Animals (APA).

The adoptions will take place at the APA's small shelter, adjacent to Gasen Drugs in Nameoki Village Shopping Center, according to Mrs. Carol Willoughby and Mrs. Marty Bridges, APA co-chairmen.

Mrs. Mary Ann Loftus, adoption supervisor for the non-profit humane group, said the "Pet of the Month" to be offered for adoption Saturday is a large tiger-striped neutered cat, whose owner recently was transferred overseas. The 2-year-old animal is very gentle and quiet and is a favorite of the volunteer workers at the permanent shelter, Mrs. Loftus said. Also available are two orange and white male cats, 6 and 8 months old; a tortoiseshell female, 5 months, with a "good" disposition; and a calico female, 5 months.

Mrs. Loftus said a black female cat, 7 months, is in need of a good home. The animal was abandoned near Horseshoe Lake at about 4 weeks old and was found dying of starvation, she explained.

An APA member took the tiny kitten home and nursed it back to health, she said. "Mickey is very good with children," she added. Beagle, 9, Raymond L. Gaudette Jr., 5, Sunflower Court, Ponton Beach; Pet. 10, Robert R. Dow, 2005 Troy Ave., Madison; Pet. 11, Arthur L. Theis, 2300 Arnold Drive.

ready for adoption in two weeks will be kept at the APA's permanent shelter at the Granite City Army Installation, Mrs. Loftus said. Persons interested in obtaining a kitten may apply at the adoption shelter Saturday and make an appointment to see the 4-week-old kittens.

At the present time, APA volunteers are spring cleaning the main shelter and four new pens have been constructed for the animals, according to Mrs. Martha Shea, shelter supervisor. Several fund-raising projects are being planned or the summer months to help finance shelter operations, she said. The APA is funded solely with personal contributions from members and the public. Nominal fees asked of those adopting a pet also are used to feed and provide medical attention for animals left in the APA's care.

Unveil bust of Morris

A bust of President Emeritus Delyte W. Morris of Southern Illinois University will be unveiled Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the lobby of the Communications Building on the SIUE campus.

Dr. Morris' membership in his family will be present for the brief ceremony, to which members of the university community and the public are invited.

The sculpture is the work of Kenneth Ryden, assistant professor of art and design at SIUE. He also constructed the marble base block and walnut pedestal on which the bust will be mounted. He said the bust will be slightly higher than standing height.

SIUE Acting President Andrew J. Kochman said, "Pres. Morris gave unstintingly of himself in the early development of this campus. Much of what we have today is due to his vision and dedicated leadership. It is most appropriate during our tenth anniversary celebration that the university community recognize the many contributions Pres. Morris made to the growth of this campus."

Prof. Ryden said he tried to capture Dr. Morris during the years of his presidency to the present. "I worked from photos of him collected when he was president and from real life," the sculptor said.

Dr. Morris was named president of SIU in 1948 and served for nearly a quarter-century, becoming president emeritus in 1970.

Ryden, an Edwardsville resident, received the bachelor of fine arts degree from the University of Wisconsin and the master of fine arts from the University of Kansas. He has won numerous awards for his artworks.

CIB personnel alleged Dunn actually received the money just before he was arrested. He was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville and his bond was set at $10,000. He also is being held for parole authorities, a state police spokesman said.

Advantages of an agreement between the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Granite City Steel designed to combat air pollution in the Quad-City area were outlined to City Council members Monday night by Casmer Skubish, inspector of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board.

Skubish, reporting on a review of the agreement by local air board members last week, told the aldermen that the clean air board feels "the people of Granite City owe a vote of thanks to the mayor and the council for supporting the efforts to bring about this big step toward cleaning up the air."

He said the program, which provides for $17.5 million in expenditures by Granite City Steel to remedy air pollution in the Quad-City area, will increase the work of local air enforcement officials more than twofold in monitoring and inspection activities.

But, he added, "Granite City should be a clean town so far as Granite City Steel is concerned," once the program is completed. Skubish noted the program will take at least two years to complete, during which time the state agrees to institute no enforcement proceedings against Granite City Steel.

Skubish told the aldermen that he and other clean air board members are convinced the program will be carried out to bring Granite City Steel in full compliance with clean air regulations, and noted that the agreement included the posting of a $250,000 bond and a voluntary contribution of $150,000 to the state treasury to guarantee installation of anti-pollution equipment in accordance with the agreement.

Alderman Steve Basarich of the Fifth Ward criticized the Illinois EPA for its rules and regulations.

"Why is the state making this agreement? They (EPA) don't know apples from bananas about this area. They've already driven out two of our bigger industries. General Steel Industries left here because they could not spend millions for pollution equipment, and the old Union Starch operation was abandoned for the same reason," Basarich commented.

"The EPA had better look out, or they'll drive National Steel out, too. I'm in favor of clean air, but I think there's a better way to get it."

In another matter involving air pollution, council members placed on file a petition by residents in the vicinity of the

Archer Daniels Midland soybean plant asking that the city take action to halt air pollution caused by "dirt, dust, odors, fumes, hazardous conditions, inconvenience and pollution caused by the Archer Daniels Midland soybean plant and trains, and trucks, etc. that are associated with the plant."

The petition said:

"We moved outside the city into this residential area to get away from the kind of conditions this plant is causing. On all sides of the plant, residences are outside the city limits. The plant incorporated into the city. They built sewers to it. None of the surrounding area has sewers."

"We feel that Granite City had no right to move this plant here. The plant trains and trucks, etc., are hazardous to our health. Even with windows, storm windows, doors and storm doors closed, the dirt, dust, odors, fumes, etc., are still uncomfortable inside our homes."

"This plant is causing all the inconvenience, pollution and unsuitable conditions it stated in the Granite City Press-Record it would not. We want it stopped immediately. We are willing to testify in this matter."

The petition bore 51 signatures by residents living on Ruth Drive and Pontoon Road.

At the request of Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward, a motion by Gerald Farney, alderman of Ward Six, to place the petition of file, also provided that copies of the petition be sent to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

In response to a question by Whitmer, Skubish, inspector of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, told the aldermen that the board is aware of the situation.

GC police benefit ball Friday night

The 15th annual "Policemen's Ball," to benefit the Granite City Police Department Health and Welfare Fund, will take place at 9 p.m. Friday at the Madison County Firemen's Hall, 9510 Collinsville Road (formerly Biederman store).

Dancing to the music of the Bob Kuban Orchestra will be from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m., according to Patrolman Roy Koberna, dance chairman and vice-president of Granite City Police Local 1347.

The event is open to the public, Koberna said.

Tickets priced at $3 each still are available from any Granite City police officer, or at police headquarters on the lower floor of the City Hall building. Tickets also may be purchased at the door Friday night.

"We have a good band able to play all types of music," Koberna said, adding, "We invite everyone to come out and join us at the dance."

Setups and snacks will be available at the hall, the chairman pointed out.

Bert Channess Construction Co. of Carterville was honored during the awards portion of the seminar with presentation by Woodhall of America's top safety award. Channess had the best safety record nationally for firms in the highway division with between 100,000 and 200,000 man hours of exposure.

During 1975, the Channess firm worked nearly 200,000 hours without a single lost-time accident.

Luhr Bros., Columbia, was honored by Woodhall for having placed second in the highway division with between 200,000 and 500,000 hours of exposure for all AGC members nationally.

Wolf, Lindsay and Wolfe firms honored for safety achievements

John A. Woodhall, chairman of the Associated General Contractors of America Safety Committee, told of the need to protect a "contractor's most valuable asset"—people—at a day-long seminar sponsored by the Southern Illinois Builders Association. Granite City contractors were honored by the gathering.

Woodhall said that, as businessmen, contractors are concerned about protecting such assets as capital and equipment, but sometimes fail to take decisive action when it comes to protecting their employees.

The address highlighted a program of presentations and awards. Featured was a program explaining and discussing changes in Illinois workers' compensation laws.

Other programs were "Reduction of Cost Through Safety" and "It's Happened Before."

Incumbents recommended in school and college voting; participation Saturday by all Quad-Cityans is urged Quad-Cityans face important decisions Saturday in school and college elections. Balloting will be conducted from noon to 7 p.m. for positions on the Granite City, Madison and Venice Boards of Education. Voting also will take place at the same polling places for positions on the Belleville Area College Board of Trustees. Three-year terms are involved in both the BAC and community unit school district elections. In Venice School District Three, residents will decide two board positions. Offering the most experience on educational issues are the two incumbents, Richard H. Bailey and Mrs. Jacquelyn Leatherman. Gerald D. Cicio and Thomas M. McIntosh are running as a team in an effort to capture the two posts. Mrs. Lucille Kalogerou is the other candidate.

Because Venice schools have begun to make headway toward solving their severe financial problems, our inclination is to recommend the incumbents, while noting that opposing candidates also served effectively.

Madison District Twelve candidates include three incumbents, Chester L. McManaway, a 21-year member, President Harold T. Fisk, with 12 years of service on the board, and Donald R. Boyer, who is completing a three-year term. The fourth candidate for the three positions is Donald E. Garrett, a Fifth Ward alderman in Madison.

Due to the heavy workload and differing responsibilities of the city government and school system, we tend to feel that City Council and Board of Education duties should not be placed on the same individual.

Of two Granite City District Nine board posts, incumbent Norman Hall is seeking a second term and Carl Macdos is retiring from the board. Filing in addition to Hall, a rural resident, were two city residents, Delton R. Groothuis and Stephen C. Saltich, and three who filed as rural, Mrs. Ruth Andrews, Mrs. Dorothy Phelps and Edward Dewey Melton.

Rules require that at least one rural member must be elected this year. If city residents lead, the rural resident with the most votes would be among those elected. There is no upper limit on the number of rural board members.

Potential legal challenges involve Mrs. Phelps, as a resident of the municipality of Pontoon Beach, and Melton, whose property may have been annexed by Granite City. The two say such questions are not valid and that they could legally serve on the board if elected.

We urge election of Hall in recognition of second position, several of those who are running could serve ably; we lean toward either Groothuis or Saltich.

Belleville Area College candidates for two trustee positions are the incumbent, Milton D. Smith of Belleville, and Robert H. Dintelmann, Eric Lehr, Leonard J. Cucco and Terrence G. Saundert, all of Belleville, Edward A. Roof and Elizabeth Jenner, both of Mascoutah, and Sam G. Gillespie of Collinsville. We favor Smith and Dintelmann.

Prompt and successful murder investigation by Madison police; area crackdown on heroin, cocaine other drugs

Skilled investigative efforts of the Madison city police department, headed by Chief of Police Frank Dutko, are receiving widespread and deserved praise.

Within hours after the tragic fatal shooting of Frank Riddle and the wounding of his wife, Ann, suspects had been apprehended and charged.

If such brutal occurrences are to be held to a minimum, it is vital that there be swift and sure arrest and prosecution. Madison police showed high ability in solving the senseless murder of a kind, well-known former street employee and fireman.

Area police departments, including Granite City and Pontoon Beach, and the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwest Illinois also are being commended for their swift action and arrests on a variety of drug-related charges.

Allegations included heroin and cocaine offenses. Such drugs have brought tragedy to countless lives and deserve the attention and resources accorded by the enforcement authorities.

Madison police performance praised

To the Editor: To Chief of Police Frank Dutko, on behalf of the residents of the Second Ward, I would like to extend to him and his department our appreciation and congratulations on the outstanding police and investigative work that went into solving the homicide case we had in our city March 31.

Any time you have a crime of this nature, we all know of the mysterious circumstance that have to be investigated and explained in order to find the truth.

By solving this crime, they have not only produced the individuals whom the department believes to be responsible but have given the residents of our community relief and peace of mind by knowing that the individuals are responsible have been taken off the streets.

I can certainly verify the appreciation the residents of the Second Ward of our city have for the quick action and results of the department's work.

I am sure that everyone on our council and in our community would be proud of the job the department has done for our residents. Chief Dutko, keep up the good work.

Public aids board in shaping policies

To the Editor: In response to Mr. Garrett's campaign comments Monday, I am writing as a Madison citizen, taxpayer, voter, mother and wife of an incumbent school board member.

I was appalled at the accusations. They are false, with no ground whatsoever. He reports almost total agreement among educators that solutions would be found if problems were left to parents, teachers and students.

I believe any educators who would make such comments do not live here nor have they betterment of our district in their hearts. This is why Madison residents' top priority in hiring practices.

There is community involvement by the Board of Education in the form of Parents Advisory Committee, Community Relations Committee, Ministers Advisory Committee, Student Advisory Committee, etc. These were formed by the present board and administration to aid in decisions and find better ways for involvement of parents and citizens in our district.

Evidently he is not aware of this. Nor does he know of the many nights, sometimes as many as four a week, going with no pay, let alone gratitude. Many meetings last till midnight and past midnight. A school board member, regardless of his decisions, will not please everyone.

The only meetings closed to the public are student hearings, personnel discussions and matters controlled by law. Most would agree that if their child were appearing for a conduct hearing, they would want to be present.

There is no "political climate." Everyone knows it is not so, and if they don't they should contact their alderman. School and city policies are separated according to law, and I know for a fact that this is the policy followed.

If Mr. Garrett feels politics is ruling, then his position as an alderman could possibly be a conflict of interest to gain a position on the Board of Education.

The current board is pulling our district out of past mismanagement.

There may be snickers and disrespect for our district but not because of the board's practices.

My husband nor any other board member is a member of a clique. Each is a separate individual and speaks separately.

The district is on probation because it has resided some aspects of court-ordered desegregation. If the courts, Health, Education and Welfare Department and state superintendent of education have their way, our district will be paying much more and having a lot of turmoil.

The only hope for Madison is through the new middle school. I don't think young children should be taken from their homes and taken across the tracks when they would walk across the street to attend Bluff or Harris grade schools.

The courts may take this out of the board's hands, so the courts rather than the board should be blamed.

Mr. Garrett's comments only emphasize his incompetence to be a board member.

The members deal with an educational process and not a political process. It is untrue that prospective board candidates dropped out because of fear.

There is fear in school hallways but if voters spoke to the parents of some of the children appearing for conduct hearings, they would understand why. This is where negligence becomes apparent and where the board should be held responsible.

The school board is trying to salvage our community and cannot do this without parental cooperation.

Bells of Liberty

It was a warm July day. Independence Square, as it is now called, and the streets of Philadelphia were packed with men and women who had waited for hours with faces lifted toward the bell, wondering if their representatives would vote to declare independence.

A messenger hurried up the stairs to the belfry. As the first sentence of the historic document was read, the tones of the bell burst upon the silent and waiting city.

For two hours, the sound of the bell was heard, proclaiming freedom to the colonies. The New Province Bell, later to be known as the Liberty Bell, was cast by Thomas Lister of Whitechapel, London, and arrived in Philadelphia in August 1752. It had been commissioned by the Pennsylvania Provincial Assembly in 1751 to hang in the new State House (later renamed Independence Hall).

Before the bell could be raised to the tower, a local 1752 newspaper reported, "It was cracked by a stroke of the clapper during a test without any real violence, and was recast by Pass and Stow, 'two ingenious workmen' of Philadelphia."

In the recasting, the English model was broken up and the same metal was melted down to be used for the new bell.

To the bell was added one and one-half ounces of American copper, the pound of old bell metal, and the new bell was cast.

The third "Liberty Bell" preserved the shape and let in the original metal but substituted the names of the craftsmen and the place and date of recasting.

Around the crown was inscribed the Biblical motto, "Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof" (Lev. 25:10).

Historians say the quotation was probably chosen to recall William Penn's "Rights of the Privileges. But the sentiment fitted the American Revolution so well that few people now remember the earlier connotation.

Finally, in June 1753, the third bell was hung in the State House steeple, where it remained in use until the steeple was taken down on July 16, 1781. The bell was then moved into the brick tower of the State House.

Long before the bell was singled out to proclaim liberty throughout the land, the State House bell had changed defiance of British law and trade restrictions and announced the Boston Tea Party.

As the British advanced on Philadelphia in 1777, the bell was moved to the town for safety. The following year, it was returned to Philadelphia and pealed joyfully for American victory during the remainder of the Revolutionary War.

Later, the bell tolled the deaths of Washington, Jefferson, Adams and other founding fathers.

In 1835, aged 59 years to the day after the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, the bell cracked while sounding the death knell for Chief Justice John Marshall.

Repair efforts were unsuccessful, and the bell hung mute and almost forgotten until 1846, when it was taken down from the tower.

After being shifted to various locations within Independence Hall, it was placed in the base of the Tower. There the Liberty Bell remained until New Year's Eve 1975, when it was moved to the new Liberty Bell Pavilion one block north of Independence Hall.

Visitors are allowed to see and touch the bell while a "Bell and Service" guide recounts its history. At night, visitors can look through the glass windows and listen to a taped audio message of the bell.

On April 19, 1975, bells in Boston joyfully announced the bicentennial of the city's Bicentennial celebration. The date also marked the 200th anniversary of the Liberty Bell.

Paul Revere and Sons were called in to recast, and appropriately, the bells in the Old North Church chimed in.

For every year Paul Revere is said to have been one of the church's bell ringers.

His interest in bells continued, and in 1792 he cast his first church bell—a rather "crude casting with a relatively rough surface and no design of village social life."

As trade grew in the 18th Century, ringing spread to the colonies, though not as widely as in England.

have survived in their original form.

Throughout the ages, bells have been the voices of history.

They have pealed in victory or tolled to signal the beginning of battles. They have sounded fire alarms, announced curfew, mourned for the dead and celebrated births.

Bells have summoned laborers to their work, given notice when previously sounded the death of every English ruler since King John died in 1216.

A number of English or European folk tales tell of the manor's own was ready to have bled, signaled shop owners to open their doors, and place, and announced dinner.

Some of the bells that rang out in England when World War II ended had been previously sounded to celebrate the signing of the Magna Carta in 1215.

To the Editor: To those of us close to the educational system of our community, I wish to go on record to support Mr. Norman Hall for re-election as a rural member of the Board of Education.

2. Experience of substantial duration and reasonable success in his trade, profession or business, resulting in acquisition of mature knowledge and judgement; the ability to contribute to informed discussions and wise actions on finance, construction, administrative and business practices and vocational and academic matters.

3. Genuine interest in an effective public school system, including retention of open, competitive bidding, to ensure active and work practices and applicable laws and to efficient and businesslike fiscal procedures, including avoidance of operating debt.

To have a good school system you must have cooperation, teamwork, study, innovation, loyalty and pride in accomplishment.

4. Willingness to learn and keep informed of our educational needs, problems and trends; to attend board meetings regularly and punctually; to be courteous and to discuss school policies with the public; and to be able to withstand unfair but intense criticism without sacrifice of principle.

5. I have had the privilege and pleasure to work with Mr. Hall as a co-member of the Board of Education, and I can truthfully say that he is an honest, unbiased, open-minded, well-oriented member of the Board of Education.

His utmost concern is the welfare of our children and the adults of our community. He is a member who above all else should be returned to the board.

My choice for the candidate most qualified to fill the other position on the school board is Mr. Stephen C. Saltich, a native of Granite City.

I have had the privilege and pleasure to work with Mr. Saltich on several civic and community projects, particularly with the Knights of Columbus.

He was most active in the KC's Shrine projects for the Shriner's Burn Foundation and the KC's program for mentally handicapped.

Mr. Hall and Mr. Saltich both measure up to the standards I have listed and are my own personal choice.

Remember, the election is Saturday, April 10, and the polls open from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Readers, whatever you do, vote for the candidate of your choice, but please vote.

Guard against employees' domination

This March 19, 1974, policy assumed that school board members are somehow gifted with superior foresight in relation to the average Granite City— they know better what is best for our children than we do.

Regardless of its intent, such a policy has the net result of eroding our freedoms, as it leaves the average citizen and voice in our public schools or control over his elected public school officials.

Boards of Education were established to represent the public, not just the few board members or special interest groups.

The average Granite Cityan is intelligent enough to look to the future as clearly as any member of the school board, and is capable of understanding decisions and actions by the board if the board will only present the facts to the people. Most of us have loved ones in the public schools, and our right is not limited in regard to the kind of education we want our children to have.

Remember, the election is Saturday, April 10, and the polls open from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Readers, whatever you do, vote for the candidate of your choice, but please vote.

ARTHUR L. "PETE" METCALF

I recommend that registered voters meet at a point to become personally acquainted with the school board candidates and vote for the candidate of their choice on April 10.

IOWA STREET WOMAN

Trains at Rt. 162 block ambulances

To the Editor: I think it is about time to write to someone about the railroad, Chicago and Northwestern, Penn Central, Alton and Southern.

Train cross Highway 162 right on the city limits of Granite City.

Before about the railroads, even if it means to sit there for 20 or 25 minutes watching the train cross the crossing with red light flashing and siren going full blast.

Yet, without concern, the train kept on going the same slow speed, backing up and clearing the crossing.

In the meantime, another ambulance approached the crossing on the other side of the tracks with injured people, lights flashing and sirens blasting, trying to get to the hospital.

That is when I decided it is time to try and get something done about this situation. What needs a case of extreme emergency?

The difference is 15 to 20 minutes could mean the difference between life and death. I know the railroad is vital to our way of life, but so is human life.

I think there could be a law introduced, like in so many other states, to limit the length of the train and switching of cars on the highways like the one on 162.

There is only one other way out of Granite City that would be a real improvement in the area, but that would be about 15 to 20 minutes more driving.

This is not the first time this has happened. I have seen this before.

If someone can give me any information on who to write to or call about this situation, I would appreciate this very much.

Boy-girl equality goals are broader than school athletics

Nationally, women's equality in education has been the subject of considerable comment on sports pages. In Illinois, the State Board of Education has committed itself to providing equality in more than just school athletics.

Deputy Superintendent Grace Duff, leader of the State Board's Women's Educational Equity Task Force, has just reported on the status of efforts to provide educational equality in the schools.

One of the high priorities of the Task Force, Dr. Duff said, is to develop guidelines for the state law, P.A. 79-507, defining "equal access" in regard to course offerings and defining "comparable programs" in regard to facilities, physical education programs, athletics and other extra-curricular activities, as well as vocational education and guidance, counseling and testing practices.

After appropriate review and hearings from school district personnel, it is intended that these definitions will be included in the final, revised guidelines.

At that time, they will be legally enforceable under the rules and regulations of the Illinois Office of Education's Recognition and Supervision Process.

A self-evaluation in terms of the federal Title IX regulations already has been incorporated into an affirmative action plan for the IOE, Dr. Duff said.

A document explaining the regulations and a guide for school districts to follow in conducting their own self-evaluation now are being prepared.

The Task Force also has been involved in providing technical assistance to school district personnel.

The IOE has made presentations on Title IX and its impact on Illinois schools, has conducted university-sponsored regional workshops, and has aided districts through four specific programs.

The first local-level program provides an in-service workshop for teachers and administrators called "Inter-Personal Recall."

The class deals with the assessments of attitudes and behavior in regard to educational and employment equity.

The second form of local assistance is dissemination of guidelines issued by the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Council on anti-discriminatory practices and affirmative action in education employment to the school districts.

Third, the Task Force is developing an educational manual called "Recognizing Sex Bias," intended to increase awareness of sex bias in curriculum materials. It includes instructions on how to correct biased text passages.

The final form of assistance to local districts involves developing a program to broaden career horizons of junior and senior high school women. At present, this program is being field tested in 15 school districts across the state.

In response to Dr. Duff's Task Force report, the State Board has adopted a motion supporting research efforts and endorsing the cooperation between IOE and institutions of higher learning in presenting workshops on women's educational equity.

The motion recommends that the Joint Education Committee also study the feasibility of further cooperative efforts.

The board directed State Superintendent Joseph Cronin to explore the staffing needs of the agency in implementing women's educational equality.

Coast Guard Auxiliary flotilla wins trophy

Flotilla 76 of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, Division VII, commanded by Frank L. Pulaski of Granite City, was awarded the Directors Trophy at the auxiliary's spring district conference at the Ramada Inn, St. Louis.

Flotillas eligible to receive the trophy are those who meet or exceed requirements for the Coast Guard Auxiliary's honor roll in a given year.

Requirements include participation in all auxiliary programs, membership gain, public education courses (such as safe boating and seamanship) and Courtesy Motorboat Examinations.

Flotilla 76 was the only unit achieving the Directors Trophy in Division VII for 1974 and 1975. Division VII encompasses part of Missouri and Southern Illinois.

Pulaski recently was appointed staff officer for vessel examinations for Division VII.

In this position, the Granite City auxiliary is responsible for promoting the Courtesy Motorboat Examinations (CME), a service provided by the Coast Guard Auxiliary to foster wider compliance with boating regulations and safe boating practices.

The CME is given only at the request of a boat owner, who receives a decal for his boat if the vessel meets the examination requirements, Pulaski said.

Widely accepted by boating officials, the decal substantiates that the craft has complied with all federal and safety regulations, the flotilla commander explained.

Area boat owners wishing further information about the Courtesy Motorboat Examination program prior to the coming boating season are invited to contact Pulaski at 676-4440.

Positions for rail inspectors

Due to increased emphasis on maintaining safe operating conditions throughout the nation's network of rail lines, the U. S. Civil Service Commission is seeking applications for railroad safety inspectors, GS-9 through 12.

Qualified candidates will receive consideration for jobs in Federal Railroad Administration offices headquartered in 50 cities throughout the country. The FRA has primary responsibility for administering and enforcing federal railroad regulations.

Inspectors are needed in five specializations: track, hazardous materials, motive power and equipment, operating practices, and signals and train controls.

The jobs require skill in evaluation, factfinding, report writing; comprehension and application of technical and regulatory standards; ability to gain cooperation of individuals and organizations; and knowledge of methods used in installation, operation, maintenance or manufacturing of railroad equipment and systems.

Inspectors normally travel 50 percent of the time, performing investigations to determine compliance with federal safety requirements and to ascertain causes of accidents and problem incidents.

To qualify, candidates must have a total of three years general experience which provided familiarity with the railroad industry or appropriate post-high-school education in related fields and three years of specialized experience providing knowledge of general principles of railroad safety and the federal regulations relating to railroad safety, plus knowledge of the specialty field.

Two years' specialized experience is required for GS-9 jobs.

Those qualified may contact the Federal Job Information Center, U. S. Civil Service Commission, 219 S. Dearborn St., Room 1322, Chicago, 60604 or in Illinois may dial, toll-free, 800-972-8388.

Burlington Bioguard™ Socks. The new way to fight foot odor and athlete's foot fungus.

America's favorite socks now come another way. With a bacteria and fungus fighter built in. They're Burlington Bioguard Socks—with a scientific ingredient that inhibits the growth of odor-causing bacteria. And helps control athlete's foot fungus. (The Environmental Protection Agency has accepted for registration the bacteriostatic and fungistatic ingredient used in Bioguard Socks.)

The Bioguard protection is in to stay, too. It lasts through repeated washings. And it's available on most of your favorite Burlington styles including: Gold Cup® casual socks, dress socks, and Equipe™ sport socks. Look for the new Bioguard label and green toe stripe on each pair. You pay a little more. But you (and your friends) will think it's worth it.

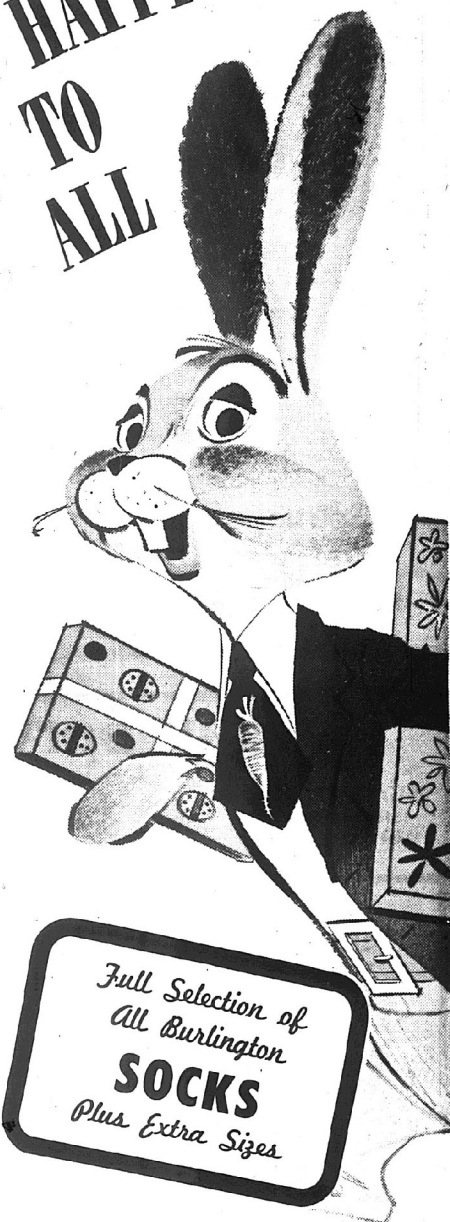

Wear Bioguard Socks daily for maximum comfort and satisfaction.

Not quite human, but it can handle almost any banking transaction a human teller can . . . at any time of day or night. Like deposits to checking or savings accounts, loan payments, Xmas or vacation clubs. And . . . if you need $50 fast on a Saturday night, this is the teller to see.

Our automated teller . . . Not much to look at. Not too much on small talk,

People Are different...

So Are Their Savings Needs

A savings certificate with a 30-month maturity would be excellent for a businessman with other investments but not appropriate for young people who would need their money in a few months.

Housewives adding to a bank account monthly or weekly would find a savings account from which they can withdraw or add to at any time would best serve their interests.

A program of regular savings is your assurance of achieving your savings objectives. Part of our service is to help you select a savings plan that best suits your requirements. We have a fine selection...including an Automatic Savings Plan. Ask us about it.

- 5% paid on Regular savings.
- 5½% paid on 3-month Certificates.*
- 6% paid on 12-month Certificates.*
- 6½% paid on 30-month Certificates.*

VEGETABLE GARDEN FERTILIZER

SOME VEGETABLE FERTILIZERS TELL YOU TO PUT IT ON TWO OR THREE TIMES A CROP. THAT'S BECAUSE THEIR NITROGEN "RELEASES" RIGHT AWAY, AND AFTER A SHORT TIME THERE'S VERY LITTLE LEFT. YOU ONLY USE SCOTTS VEGETABLE GARDEN FERTILIZER ONCE (UNLESS YOU HAPPEN TO LIVE IN THE SOUTH AND HAVE VERY SANDY SOIL. IT'S MADE IN A UNIQUE WAY THAT HOLDS SOME OF ITS NITROGEN BACK FOR LATER. SO YOUR PLANTS NOT ONLY GET OFF TO A QUICK, STURDY START, THEY ALSO GET A LITTLE MORE EVERY DAY TO HELP KEEP THEM GROWING. RESULT? A GARDEN FULL OF VEGETABLES THAT MAKES GARDENING WORTHWHILE. TRY SCOTTS VEGETABLE GARDEN FERTILIZER THIS SPRING. IT'S WELL WORTH THE PRICE.
